

Artist Warriors: Post Apocalyptic Adventure

Call for Entry – Open To All Area Artist

January 6 – 29, 2012

Imagine you are an artist surviving in the landscape of a post apocalyptic world. You become an art warrior documenting this inhospitable world with your art and creating fashions to move through it. The causes of this apocalypse could be real or media created. Global warming, pandemic diseases, asteroid impact, world war over fuel, and nuclear holocaust—those fears are ingrained in our psyches. Apocalyptic scenarios open up a world of creative possibilities, as we watched robots becoming our masters in "The Terminator" or genetic mutated monkeys took over earth as in "The Planet of the Apes." Don't forget zombies. Perhaps your idea is more like "WALL-E" looking for the rebirth of plant life or even giant mutant bunnies taking over. Why should Hollywood have all the fun?

This show is all about letting your inner survivalist and your art warrior imagination go wild. Show is open to both 2- and 3-dimensional art as well as textiles such as clothing of apocalyptic era. Apocalyptic fashion will be worn during Opening Reception and also on display. Please contact curator if you plan on submitting an apocalyptic fashion for the show.
