POWER ART; Featuring Power Suits

March 1 to March 31, 2013

A juried show; open to any artists

Edgar Degas said: "Art is not what you see, but what you make others see."

POWER ART makes others see familiar things in new ways; it evokes emotions. POWER ART can be big and bold, but it can also be quiet and simple. Regardless, it makes the viewer stop, and think. POWER ART is often a philosophical or satirical commentary. It addresses civil liberties, human rights or even the environment—that means POWER ART is often unconventional in both material and techniques.
