“Art and Story”

DEL RAY ARTISANS - ALL MEMBER SHOW - CALL FOR ENTRY

GALLERY WITHOUT WALLS EXHIBIT

“Art and Story” at the Shirlington Public Library in Arlington

Del Ray Artisans' Gallery Without Walls Curator
Eileen O'Brien, GWW@TheDelRayArtisans.org

The power of art and story is universal. A good story or piece of literature can spark the imagination and inspire artists to create meaningful work. Behind every piece of art is a story - whether borne of the artist's experience, or interpretation of social or cultural events. As part of its Gallery Without Walls program, Del Ray Artisans challenges member artists to present artwork that is inspired by or tells a good story for a month-long show at the Shirlington branch of the Arlington Public Library, 4200 Campbell Avenue, Arlington, Virginia 22206.

The curating committee will consider two- and three-dimensional pieces for submission. The library has two main wall spaces: one space, which can accommodate between 8 and 20 pieces, is located to the left of the main entrance. The other space is located on the back wall and can accommodate between 5 and 10 pieces. Large pieces display particularly well on the back wall space. In addition, the library has three protected displays for three-dimensional pieces. This is a current Del Ray Artisans members only exhibit.
