February 2004

RED2 fundraiser kicks off fabulous February

Plan to attend the RED2 Fundraiser and Dance Party, Friday, February 6th, 8 PM to midnight. It features a Silent Heart Auction of unique, decorated hearts created by DRA members and celebrity artists.

Enjoy desserts, champagne, a coffee bar, and rocking to the tunes of award-winning band Ruthie and the Wranglers.

Desert island art opens Feb. 13th

Trapped on a deserted island, the artist is challenged to create art using only a box-full of found objects. That is the premise of the Creative Challenge Art Exhibition on view from Feb 13 through February 29. Back in September show curator Linda Silk distributed boxes, wrapped to conceal their contents, to the thirty participants of the challenge.

Following the rules of the challenge, artists were to refrain from using any of their normal art supplies, and fashion the necessary tools and supplies to create a piece of artwork from the contents of their box. The only thing they could add--beyond their own creative juices--was water. Silk assembled 3 versions of The Box, ten of each version, filling them with sundry non-art-related items, such as a toothbrush, soap, assorted paperclips, a charcoal briquette, discarded carbon paper, a drink umbrella, a balloon, etc. In other words items that might wash up on a beach or be found on a desert island. The only bonding agent in the box might be a stick of chewing gum or a candle. "Even the vessel to hold water must come from the box. Beyond wanting adult artists to explore creating outside their comfort zone as they did as children", said Silk, "I wanted to pose the question: Is an artist still an artist if you take away their paint brush; or, is an artist, first and foremost, a creative thinker who is not limited or defined by their tool of choice?" While some of the artists who participated in the challenge found it more hard work than satisfying, several commented that they had a lot of fun, and that shows in their results. "Many pieces on display are laugh-out-loud fun to look at", says Silk. One piece in particular, from an artist who typically is extremely serious and favors the school of realism, is a whimsical underwater cartoon diorama, a la 'Finding Nemo'. Also fun to look at are the different approaches taken by individuals with the same box contents: a wooden spindle is a squid in one piece, a woman in another, and a familiar part of a man's anatomy in another.

The Creative Challenge Art Exhibition runs from February 13-29, with the opening reception on Friday, February 13 from 7:00-9:30pm. The Del Ray Artisans Gallery is located in the Nicholas Colasanto Center 2704 Mount Vernon Ave, Alexandria, VA. Gallery hours are Saturday 10am to 4pm and Sundays from noon to 4pm.

Member meeting & white elephant swap, Feb. 17th

Continuing our fabulous February is the next Member Event, Tuesday, February 17th from 7:30-9:30 PM at the Gallery.

Use it or Swap it!!!! Bring any art supply items you don't use anymore and swap it for maybe something a bit more you...

Find a hidden treasure that has lurked in some else's studio. One artist's junk is another artist's joy!!!!

There will be food, fun and maybe some cool art supplies. Contact Samatha Lentz, twnstr@aol.com

Contributors this month include: Linda Silk, Karen Schmitz, Julie Geschwind and Dave Nicholson.

Spring member's show curator needed

As flowers pop out of the ground so will the newest works from DRA members emerge from studios, darkrooms and workshops. Help put this show together and gain valuable experience as curator.

The curator is the quintessential drum major for gallery exhibits. Ample assistance will be provided to help newbys who want to gain hands-on experience in staging art exhibits. Contact Karen Schmitz, schmityk@yahoo.com

Renaissance show, unique and successful

The temperature outside the Gallery was freezing. Inside, however, it was another story. The Renaissance Show was sizzling with artwork. Detailed mosaics by Gene Sterud, DRA logo'd glass pins by Patti North-Rudin and even a lovely Chinese brushwork monkey by "Jenny" Qian-Qing helped illustrate the show's theme of the rebirth.

Curator Richard Wyvill hung 49 pieces of art like a pro. Over $1,700 in sales by the artists were realized from this first show of the New Year.

Also, thanks to Christopher Wright for his creation of the show's postcard.

Here's something to really sink your teeth into

Yes, folks you've attended those fabulous gallery openings, viewed the artworks and enjoyed all the luscious food provided. You may even have been one of those special persons who contributed food.

Well now there is a chance to be a star. Have your culinary talents recognized far and wide. The Del Ray Artisans are going to put together a cookbook!

Early plans are underway to combine what is best about our openings, art and food into a printed volume of...art and recipes. At this stage we are issuing a Call for Recipes. They will be assembled into a cookbook format and then will be illustrated with DRA members' artworks throughout. One idea under consideration is to choose works of art and build menus around each of the works.

Visualize Renoir's Luncheon of the Boating Party and imagine the food served during that afternoon on the water or even Hopper's Nighthawks, "...cuppa joe and a slice of apple pie with cheddar."

So toque up and let the imagination fly. Send in your favorite recipe along with a short note describing yourself or why this is a favorite recipe. We will be collecting recipes in all categories: appetizers, salads, soups, main courses, vegetables, breads, desserts and beverages.

There is a rumour that DRA might stage "tastings" of the recipes submitted. Did we say that there already is a chocolate eggnog recipe floating around? Stay tuned. Send an MS Word document to Dave Nicholson, f8photog@yahoo.com

Are you good with other people's money?

Consider volunteering for the high-profile position of Fundraising Chairman. Use your ideas to pull in money to help the DRA continue with its programs, classes, outreach and gallery exhibits. Contact Susan Slattery, summerh@erols.com

Ohhhh, pluzee make it stop

Our hard-working Treasurers, Marlin Lord and Kathryn Brown continue to struggle with receipts from curators and helpers who purchase materials for shows.

There is an expense form that must be completed and submitted with EVERY purchase where reimbursement is requested. We do not want to sound harsh, but we must ask for everyone's cooperation.

A question asked is a problem avoided.

If you need guidance on this, contact either Marlin, mglia@aol.com or Kathryn neonkanb@aol.com

Gallery sitting goals

Here's what one member/artist does when sitting the Gallery. Patti North-Rudin gives herself a goal every time she sits the gallery. For those two hours she tries to get at least one new member to sign up and join DRA.

And now with our new benefit, the availability to join the Commonwealth One Federal Credit Union as part of membership, we have an even stronger message for potential members.

If every gallery sitter achieved this goal we would have over 175 new members a year. Thanks Patti for the idea and your efforts!

Information on Commonwealth One, call COFCU at 703/823-5211 or 800/424-3334 about enrollment or services.
