Portraits of Pop Culture Art Exhibit: March 7 – 30

Opening Reception:
Friday, March 7, 7 – 10 pm

Come see the Portraits of Pop Culture art exhibit at Del Ray Artisans running from March 7 through March 30. Pop culture is so pervasive in our society that it distracts the public's focus from the important issues that shape our world. Our media is populated by absurd celebrities, politicians and pundits; they drive pop culture and run from the profound to the profane.

Artists have used famous people as their subjects from before da Vinci to after Warhol. What will today's artists' portraits of pop icons reveal? Do they fascinate or irritate? Curators Zade Ramsey and Gordon Frank selected the most compelling cartoons, lampoons and caricatures of celebrities, politicians and other pop figures. Get the first glimpse of Portraits of Pop Culture by coming to the opening reception on Friday, March 7 from 7 – 10 pm.

Heads Up — a Fundraiser Show for Del Ray Artisans Featured within this Exhibit

Del Ray Artisans members have used their artistry and imagination to transform styrofoam mannequin heads into works of art. These wild and crazy sculptures will be for sale by silent auction during the Portraits of Pop Culture exhibit. Proceeds go to support Del Ray Artisans gallery seating for exhibits.

April's Exciting Show! — REVOLUTION: Art & Technology

Love it or hate it, technology is revolutionizing the art world. This all-member, all-media exhibit explores the artists' relationship between technology and art. Technology can inspire, challenge, engage or frustrate the artist. How do you feel? This show challenges all artists to examine their feelings towards, and use of, technology in their creations. Computer-created art, digitally manipulated art, art made from electronic parts, art expressing your relationship with technology are a few considerations. You may submit up to 2 pieces of artwork in any medium and in 2 or 3 dimensions. Shrink-wrapped 2D artwork or fine handcrafted work may also be entered into the market. For details, see the enclosed Call for Entry or download it from: TheDelRayArtisans.org/shows/calls/. With questions, please contact curators Ann Krug (annkrug50@gmail.com) and Connie Saunders (chsanders55@gmail.com) or Director of Curating Lesley Hall (Curating@TheDelRayArtisans.org).

By Women, About Women

Gallery Without Walls Show runs March 10 – June 29 at Prudential PenFed Realty, 300 N. Washington Street, Suite 100.

Digital submissions are due Feb. 28. Accepted work drop-off is Mar. 5. The next exhibit at PedFed is the Living Legends of Alexandria Project honoring Women's History month, featuring photographic portraits of women who have made a positive difference to Alexandria's quality of life. Selected works by Del Ray Artisan's women artists will accompany this exhibit. Del Ray Artisans is seeking 10 to 15 2D artworks from female members. Artwork must be by a woman and feature women or women-based themes, but not be strict portraiture.

For details, see Call for Entry at: TheDelRayArtisans.org/shows/calls/.

Give to Del Ray Artisans on April 9!

On Wed., April 9, our community comes together for 24 hours of unprecedented giving to support Alexandria nonprofits through Spring2Action, hosted by ACT for Alexandria and ACTION Alexandria. Every donation to Del Ray Artisans gives us a chance to win more grants and prizes. Help raise awareness and funds to support our mission of promoting art to benefit artists and the community. Every donation counts! Save the date (April 9). Stay tuned for more information!

Memoirs of a Show Curator

It was exciting to see my vision come to life in the gallery. Art-works submitted surpassed any notions I had. Del Ray Artisans has assembled an invaluable curator manual covering the process from concept to clean-up. You'll also need a reliable, responsible support team that understands your vision which will adjust to circumstances along the way. The best way to attract and find this support team is to VOLUNTEER with shows! It's educational and is a great bonding experience with other "creatives".

... and How Not to be "That Artist"

Every curator encounters "That Artist" who asks to turn their work in late, making volunteers re-hang entire walls. "That Artist" does not know the schedule and never signs up to gallery host or help with show duties. "That Artist" does not realize that volunteers who work full-time must hang a show in a few days. "That Artist" might consider helping with hanging and lighting a show; postcard distribution; wall prep, banner hanging, or reception clean-up — tasks that are NOT part of required member volunteer hours. "That Artist" hasn't carefully read the Call for Entry, nor respected the show theme, which puts the curator in an awkward position. "That Artist" does not know s/he will NOT get entry fees back. "That Artist" should understand that show themes keep the gallery uniquely "fresh" for our patrons and help artists try new art approaches. "That Artist" should know that Del Ray Artisans is the first gallery in which many of us show our work. Abiding by the carefully thought-out policies keep us in company with other professional art galleries. So don't be "that artist"! Instead, be "The Artist"!!! — Theresa Kulstad

Artwork Left at the Gallery

As of Jan. 1, all unpurchased artwork must be picked up from the gallery within 30 days after a show closes. ALL artwork left at the gallery after the 30-day deadline WILL become property of Del Ray Artisans.

Recapping Reincarnations!

Even on the heels of the Polar Vortex, Del Ray Artisans Gallery was hot, hot, hot on opening night! Artists rose to the occasion in transforming discarded and salvaged items into provocative, interesting artworks.

I was delighted to receive over 100 pieces, many from the "Artyclopedia" challenge. Juror Rosemary Luckett awarded artworks that showed true transformations and/or developed techniques with definitive designs. Suzanne Tillman received Best in Show for her three collages, a body of work reflecting design sophistication and transformative use of materials. Jen Athanas received Juror's Choice for Best Artyclopedia for transforming her encyclopedia into a Kimono inspired by the Japanese Tsunami and two influential books. Jen also received Juror's Honorable Mention for her Wedding Garment created from vintage finds including undergarments. The juror created the Wonderful Whimsy Award for Diane Gamberman and Debbie Mezzetta for their charming artworks displaying professional execution. I chose many Curator's Choices and for Best Artyclopedia, Curator's Choice: Kathy Turner wowed with a 3-piece ensemble plus brooch created from her encyclopedia. Honorable Mentions and Curator's Choices (chosen by both juror and curator) went to D.J. Gaskin, Lesley Hall, Rusty Lynn, Ann Krug, Stacy Rausch, Ken Reed, Constance Springer, and Jackie Tury. Congratulations to you all!

Stacy Rausch displays her Curator's Choice Artyclopedia creation.

A wonderful aspect of Reincarnations was that it "resurrected" some folks whose artworks hadn't been seen in the gallery for a while — and some of them were award-winners! The show drew in a few new artists and patrons. One, a retired art critic from The Washington Post, came in during our Valentine card-making event. She was impressed with the show and activity. Reading the newsletter and checking out upcoming shows, she said the artwork was great and the show themes were key in keeping the gallery fresh and unique. She exclaimed "This place is a treasure and a great hub for the community!" — Theresa Kulstad

February's Card-making Party—What a Crowd!

February's Valentine card-making from recycled supplies certainly drew a crowd. So much so, we could have used a few more tables! Fun, fun, fun is what has these events growing in popularity. Card-makers shared techniques and feedback creating beautiful sentiments along with funny and even some alternative types of cards. I hope one day you are lucky enough to receive a hand-crafted, original work of art in your mailbox! — Theresa Kulstad

"From Board Game to Book" — Workshop with Stacy Rausch

Bookmaking workshop participants spent Sunday afternoon, Jan. 19, with instructor Stacy creating a hand-bound, one-of-a-kind art journal using a board game as the cover and using traditional book-binding methods and materials.

Play with Resin on March 24

The ever-popular "Playing with Resin" workshop is invading the gallery again on March 24, from 7 – 10 pm. Come "play" with resin in a safe environment and learn the ins and outs of mixing resin and using it in your artwork.

See Plaza Suite on June 13, Support the Gallery

Our June show, SUITES, will sensationalize the gallery, while the Little Theatre of Alexandria offers up their own intrigues! On Friday, June 13, LTA presents Neal Simon's Plaza Suite, where Del Ray Artisans hosts a special Reception. Purchase tickets for June 13 only through Del Ray Artisans. Stay tuned for more details.

The Alexandria Art Market 2014 Opens May 10

Held on 2nd Saturday, May–Oct, 10 am–4 pm

Del Ray Artisans' 5th season of The Alexandria Art Market opens festively with live music on Saturday, May 10. The "rain or shine" market is in the park adjoining the gallery. Original artwork from over 25 artists will be displayed for sale, including painting, photography, pottery, jewelry, and glasswork.

Artspace Application Deadline: Monday, April 14 (open to all area artists) Market your art or craft and connect with the community! Contact Kimberley Bush at 703-627-7656 or ArtMarket@TheDelRayArtisans.org

Del Ray Artisans / Call For Entry / All Member Show / 4 April—27 April 2014

REVOLUTION: ART & TECHNOLOGY

Love it or hate it, technology is revolutionizing the art world. This all-member, all-media exhibit explores the artists' relationship between technology and art. Technology can inspire, challenge, engage or frustrate the artist. How do you feel? This show challenges all artists to examine their feelings towards and use of technology in their art creations. Computer-created art, digitally manipulated art, art made from electronic parts, art expressing your relationship with technology are a few considerations.

For more information, please contact the curators Ann Krug (annkrug50@gmail.com) and Connie Saunders (chsanders@aol.com) or Director of Curating Lesley Hall (Curating@TheDelRayArtisans.org).

In conjunction with the art exhibit, we will feature the 1999 movie The Thomas Crown Affair. A priceless Monet painting from the Metropolitan Museum of Art is stolen when modern technology is breached. Movie night, at a suggested donation of $3 per person, is scheduled for Sunday, April 6 at 7pm. A round table discussion on technologies ability to inspire, educate and promote an artist and their work will be held Saturday, April 12 at 10am. The events are free, but a $3-5 donation is suggested and appreciated. Please register in advance at: www.TheDelRayArtisans.org/programs

Entry Details:

- This show is open to Del Ray Artisans (DRA) members only. (membership must be current)
- Receiving takes place Sunday, March 30 from 6pm-8pm and Monday, March 31 from 6pm-8pm.
- Acceptance of all submissions is at the curators' discretion.
- Your art must be ready to hang or display with wire and screw eyes, mounting and/or display stand, framed, matted, or with edges finished. We cannot show work that is not ready for exhibition. For more information, visit: www.TheDelRayArtisans.org/shows/artguidelines.html
- Artists may submit up to 2 pieces of artwork for the show at a non-refundable entry fee of $5 per piece.
- Artists may submit up to 3 pieces of artwork for Art To Go at a non-refundable entry fee of $2 per piece.
- Artwork for Art To Go must be shrink-wrapped and ready for sale (framed artwork is not accepted).
- Diptychs or triptychs that are framed as 2 or 3 separate framed pieces will count as 2 or 3 separate entries; only if the diptych or triptych is framed as one piece will it be accepted as a single entry.

Accepted Artist Requirements:

- Artists are responsible for drop-off/pick-up arrangements.
- All artists MUST gallery host and volunteer with set-up, hanging, opening/closing receptions and/or take down. Please bring your calendars so you can sign up for duties at receiving. You are also asked to contribute a food or beverage for the opening reception.
- When your art sells you are asked to make a 20% donation (tax-deductible) to Del Ray Artisans.
- Insurance for artwork and all arrangements for work sold is the responsibility of the artist.
- Neither Del Ray Artisans nor the City of Alexandria can be held liable for any loss or damage.
- Permission to photograph any work for DRA publicity purposes is automatically granted by the artist as a requisite for entering the show.
- Artist must pick up unsold artwork on Sunday, April 27 between 6-8pm unless other arrangements are made with the curators in advance. All unsold artwork left at the gallery for 30 days after the show closes will become the property of Del Ray Artisans.
- Work must be original (no reproductions) and not previously exhibited in a DRA show.
- Print out and keep a copy of both sides of this call for entry/entry form for your records.
