2017 Youth Summer Art Camp July 17-21 and July 24-28

Register now for the 2017 Del Ray Artisans Youth Summer Art Camp! Youth ages 8-14 years old are invited to spend a week with professional educational staff at Del Ray Artisans creating art and architecture, learning a range of creative techniques. Art Camp is a one-week experience for campers of "Building BIG" using all kinds of materials and inspiration. We will learn how materials, texture, form, and design come together to make memorable structures. Working with cardboard, paint, clay, and other natural materials, our ideas will have no bounds! Choose either week one (July 17-21, 2017) or week two (July 24-28, 2017). Camp is Monday through Friday, 9am to 4pm daily, and costs $325 per child. Scholarships may be available upon request. All art supplies and snacks are provided. For more information and registration forms, please visit: DelRayArtisans.org/event/Art-Camp-2017.

There will be a special, one-day only, gallery show from 1-3pm on the Saturday following camp (July 22 for week one campers and July 29 for week two campers) to show off student work. The reception is a great chance for campers, family, and friends to talk to the Art Camp Administrator, Susan Tremblay, and other students about their experience. Art Camp and the gallery show will be at Del Ray Artisans gallery in the Nicholas A. Colasanto Center, 2704 Mount Vernon Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22301. The gallery is handicap accessible. For inquiries, contact Office Manager Betsy Mead at Gallery@DelRayArtisans.org.

Celebrate Two Events with One Star

Independence Day is a celebration of freedoms. One of the freedoms artists value most is the freedom of expression. For 25 years, Del Ray Artisans has been helping budding artists of all generations express themselves. Celebrate this freedom of expression by hanging a silver star in the Del Ray Artisans gallery in honor of our 25th Anniversary and Independence Day. Silver Stars may be purchased at the gallery or online at DelRayArtisans.org/silver-star. Money received for the Silver Stars will be used for the Silver Legacy Project as well as continuing our artistic outreach programs. We are providing funding to purchase art-related books and instructional materials for several elementary in schools with art needs so that the youth of our community can continue to express themselves through art.

Art Camp Origins

Del Ray Artisans Art Camp began in 1998, in response to a study done by the City that found a need for summer programming for middle school youth. DRA had recently moved into the Colasanto Center. The Artisans thought that providing summer programming for middle schoolers (fifth through eighth graders) would not only meet the needs of kids, but also create a connection with our neighbors at the recreation center.

Linda Silk developed a brochure touting Art Camp's three two-hour sessions: Visionary Art, Photography, and Multicultural Dance. Peggy Kauffman's Visionary Art class began with a field trip to Baltimore's Visionary Art Museum on Monday. Tuesday, her students began working in their own "sacred space" to create 3-D self portraits. Peggy filled the center with found objects, wood, fabric, rolls of plastic, rope, nuts and bolts, clay pots, broken plates, and gave instruction on how to use hand tools. She surrounded the kids with piles of art magazines and images drawn from a variety of sources. Liz Martinez, Kathryn Brown, and Charlotte Corcoran were among those who volunteered to help.

At mid-morning Jane DeWeerd would show up with supplies to make bag lunches. The morning session campers would eat with those arriving for the afternoon photography group. The photography group was led by Britt Leckman, who showed campers how to make pinhole cameras. Over the course of the week the group scoured the neighborhood snapping images. He used the dark room at the Rec Center to introduce the kids to the developing process. The last session of each day took place in the dance studio at the Rec Center. Teacher Martha Peterson introduced her campers to dance moves and the music and cultural traditions of Trinidad, Brazil and Cuba. The campers also created costumes for their performance.

On Friday parents and the public gathered to watch the dance performance in the gym at the Rec Center. Afterwards, everyone moved to the gallery to view an exhibit of the Visionary Art and Photography. It was a hectic, fun, and creative effort.

Clowning Around at Del Ray Artisans August 4-27, 2017 Entries due: Monday, July 24, 2017

Clowning Around encourages artists to express their inner clown through art in fun, playful, sadistic, comedic, or tragic ways. Your clown could be a satirical social comment, a painting that expresses a personal tragedy through laughter, a found object reshaped by your imagination, a photograph to produce giggles, or even an absurd clown randomly popping up in a landscape. Embrace a childlike whimsy or journey into a carnival of crazy clowns. Join us in this romp with a truly American genre. Complete call for entry details at DelRayArtisans.org/2017/05/clowning-around-cfe.

Childhood Passions at Del Ray Artisans Gallery September 1 – October 1, 2017 Entries due: Monday, August 21, 2017

We've all had childhood dreams and passions; things that we did that brought us complete joy. We did them instinctively because it was playful, fun, and made us feel alive. As we grow up, we lose touch with the ability to play like a child and the experience of doing things for the sheer joy of it. What were you passionate about as a child that you don't have much time for now? Artists are invited to create artwork that honors childhood passions and art that captures or evokes the joy of a child. Complete call for entry details at DelRayArtisans.org/2017/06/childhood-passions-cfe.

Stop and Smell the Roses...

...or just stop and take a look at DRA's beautiful gardens. They are abloom with roses, day lilies, oak leaf hydrangeas, and many other bountiful and blossoming plants. Everything is arranged artistically with a natural touch. Did you notice the Adirondack-style fences that enclose some of the gardens? Take a moment and walk down the side path of the gallery. Have a seat on the bench and enjoy the beauty that surrounds you. Thank you to Gardens Curator Pamela Underhill and her gardening team for giving us such a spectacular environment.

Red, White & Tuna Fundraiser Recap

On Friday, June 2, DRA members and friends dove into the Little Theatre of Alexandria for our 25th Anniversary Theater Night. A reception kicked off the evening with cheeses donated by Cheesetique, breads by Junction Bakery, and olives, dried fruits, and more cheese thanks to Whole Foods. Good weather allowed us to set up the bar outside. Drinks were supplied by one of our own DRA members. The cupcake and champagne intermission, compliments of Alexandria Cupcake, was the backdrop to the raffle drawing for pieces donated by DRA members. The prizes were: "Fish Out Of Water" by Guy Jones, "Fins" by Theresa Kulstad, Linda Elliff's "Plated Purchased Perch", Angela Calos' "Flit", "Clean Water" by Karen Schmitz, "Cioppini" by John Bordner, and a "Net the Marlins Basket" with Nats v. Marlins tickets and Nats swag donated by John Elliff.

A big thanks to LTA and their Partners-In-Art program. And we can't thank our volunteers enough: Sunny Chen, Sharon Edwards, Beth Elliott, Nora Gluch, Sherry Holden, Maria Illingworth, Kim Joy, Brandy Lellou, Linda Lowery, Cathy Messina, Stacy Rauch, Nick Reese, and Jeanne Theismann. John Bordner and Angela Calos were the energy and brains behind the evening, so an extra big "fishy thanks" goes out to them. Thanks to all who joined us for the event.

President's Message

Summer is in full swing and the workshops available for GUAC this year are amazing. Please check out the website of workshops still to come. I see lots of new names on the list and that is wonderful.

If you are still looking for a camp for your children or if you heard your neighbor say "I wish we had signed Johnny up for camp but it is too late" tell them there is still room in Art Camp. Check out the website. I will be busy teaching at eight summer camps; I love sharing my art with children and watching them grow and learn.

Summer is also a great time to start working on pieces for upcoming shows. Look for volunteer opportunities during GUAC and the fall shows. For those traveling and taking vacations, have fun, be safe and send me a postcard.

-Kim S. Joy, President, DRA
