Event Promotion

All programs are advertised in the DRA monthly newsletter, on the website and social media accounts. Announcements may also be distributed to local and regional print and electronic media.

If your program/workshop is scheduled, you will be asked provide 1-3 images to be used for advertising this program, workshop, or event. Images help encourage participation. You may include images with this form or wait to hear from the Programs Director.

Permission to reproduce the images attached for Del Ray Artisans publicity and archival purposes is automatically granted by the instructor as a requisite for submitting the proposal. Do not include any images that are not approved for Del Ray Artisans use. If you have any questions, please contact: Programs@DelRayArtisans.org

28. Workshop description for Del Ray Artisans website (be as descriptive as possible. This may be the only information potential participants see on the program before deciding to sign up) *

Proposal Review Process

Del Ray Artisans Director of Programs will review your submission, and coordinate with office staff and/or board members in a timely manner. We will consult the DRA master calendar in an effort to accommodate your requested date(s). The Director of Programs will notify you regarding status of proposal as soon as possible, and may contact you with follow up questions. DRA reserves the right to increase registration fee for non-members and/or to be in better alignment with market rates.

Building Information

Here is some helpful information for conducting a program at the DRA gallery.

- Tables and folding chairs are available for your use. Please contact the program's director with specific questions about quantity, etc. at Programs@DelRayArtisans.org.
- There is a sink available in the kitchen for water, rinsing out paint and other containers and washing up
- Restrooms are available
- A microwave and refrigerator are available for long classes, where participants are encouraged to bring lunch
- Street parking is available along Mount Vernon Avenue, Commonwealth Ave and other neighboring streets. DO NOT park in bank lot across the street. They do tow.

Special thanks to the City of Alexandria, Alexandria Commission for the Arts, Virginia Commission for the Arts, and National Endowment for the Arts for their continued support of Del Ray Artisans, a 501(c)(3) organization.
