A Christmas Carol Fundraiser at The Little Theatre of Alexandria December 11, 6:30-9:30pm

Join us for a special evening at The Little Theatre of Alexandria. Del Ray Artisans is hosting a reception for The Little Theatre of Alexandria's performance of "A Christmas Carol" on Tuesday, December 11, 2018 from 6:30-9:30pm.

Tickets are just $45 each. All proceeds support Del Ray Artisans nonprofit. Tickets can be purchased at the gallery or online at:

DelRayArtisans.org/event/christmas-carol

President's Message

Here we are again, another month gone by, the winter holidays quickly approaching. In December we have Holiday Market the first three weekends, A Christmas Carol fundraiser at The Little Theatre of Alexandria on December 11, and the entry deadline for January's show Faces on December 16.

Congratulations to Sophia Suarez on the birth of her second son, Mateo Raphael. While Sophia is on maternity leave, the Board has appointed Dawn Wyse Hurto as acting Membership Director.

I recently came across a quote about winter by British poet Edith Sitwell, "Winter is the time for comfort, for good food and warmth, for the touch of a friendly hand and for a talk beside the fire: it is the time for home." A warm, happy, friendly winter to one and all.

– Drew Carias, DRA President

December Board Meeting

The next Board meeting will be on Tuesday, December 4 at 7pm at Chadwicks, 203 Strand St, Alexandria. This meeting is for current Board members to welcome new Board members. To address the Board at the January 8 meeting, email: Secretary@DelRayArtisans.org

2019 Wall Calendars

The 2019 wall calendars have arrived. Each month features 4-5 pieces of artwork. Thank you to sponsors Bobi Bomar and Ellen Patrick (Homes of Alexandria, Weichert), MCD Mateos McDonald's, WiSC Enterprises, and Cooley LLP; and thanks to all the members who donated the use of their art for this fundraiser.

Calendars are $19 each and all proceeds support Del Ray Artisans. Purchase at the gallery. Thank you for your support.

Faces January 4–27, 2019

Digital Entries Due December 16, 2018

Portraits show the life a person has lived, the joy a person emanates, the wisdom gained through years of living, and focuses on the soul of the person. This exhibit is for the fresh face of a two-year old toddler or the lived-in face of an octogenarian, and all living in between. Full length portraits are encouraged, but this exhibit centers on faces, however the artist portrays them, whether realistic, impressionistic, surreal, or abstract. Bodies in motion, thoughtful faces, eyes as the mirror of the soul are all part of the portrait. Open to all area artists. Call for entry and details at DelRayArtisans.org/2018/10/faces-cfe/

Upcoming Workshops

Art of Business Workshop

Saturday, January 12, 10am–12pm

The Art of Business workshop will answer your questions on income, sales, and local Virginia county taxes. In a lecture and discussion format, Rita Schooley, CPA will go over the general points of tax law and then answer questions. We will also discuss general aspects of business from an artist's viewpoint. We cover recordkeeping, record retention, filing tax returns, estimated tax payments, and navigating the tax maze. Participants can bring all tax- and business-related questions for consideration. Rita will be available after the session for about half an hour to answer questions privately. Sign up at: DelRayArtisans.org/event/the-art-of-business

Needle Felted Jewelry

Saturday, January 12, 1–4pm

During this workshop, participants will learn the basics of how to create 3D Needle Felted Jewelry, as well as basic jewelry techniques. We will also explore using other materials such as beads, charms, and thread to add to our needle felted jewelry pieces. Sign up at: DelRayArtisans.org/event/needle-felted-jewelry

Creative Revival – 12 Weeks to Nurture & Unblock Your Creativity, starts Saturday, January 26, 2–4pm

Creative Revival Artist's Way Circle, a group facilitated by artist and curator Sharon Burton, will meet once a week for 12 weeks as we go through The Artist's Way by Julia Cameron. Together, we will share our journey into finding the creative muse. Each week we will meet to discuss a chapter of the book, our daily journaling practice, weekly Artist's Dates that you select to inspire yourself and other insights that you wish to share on this special journey. Each participant receives The Artist's Way book and journal for the program, as well as access to a Facebook group and a group of other artists and creatives moving through the journey with you. Sign up at: DelRayArtisans.org/event/creative-revival

Celebrating our Connections

Curating the Connecting Threads exhibit was a fantastic experience. We are thankful for the tremendous support from DRA members and the community, and we were wowed by the variety, individuality, and creativity of the artwork submitted. Part of this exhibit may even be reborn in a Gallery Without Walls venue in 2019.

Congratulations to Curator's Choice Award Winners, "Post Apocalyptic Apothecarist" by Lynn Fernandez and "An Autumn Trifle" by Rusty Lynn, and to the Artistic Artifacts Award Winners, "Ala Monana Memorial Lanterns" by Barbara Prentice and "What that quilt knows about me" by Jenny Nicholson. Diana Ok was the raffle winner; congratulations to her as well.

Thank you to Artistic Artifacts for sponsoring the exhibit and artist awards, to MCD Mateos McDonald's for sponsoring the reception, to Kathy Turner and Nature's Nibbles for the raffle prizes, to the volunteers who made this show possible – especially Christine Vinh, to the artists for submitting amazing pieces, and to the patrons who went home with art. Thank you also to everyone who donated new towels for the Carpenter's Shelter. We are warmed by your generosity and grateful for your support. Happy Holidays!

—Dawn Wyse Hurto and Liz Martinez, curators

Card Party Happenings

Thanks to an enthusiastic crew of 15 card makers at our last card making event on November 12, there is an array of new greeting cards in the gallery for purchase. These "all occasion" creations will be inserted in biodegradable clear sleeves and sold for $3 to $8 to benefit Del Ray Artisans. Hostesses Theresa Kulstad, Karen Schmitz and Jenny Nicholson did short demos for the cardmaking crew. We all had so much fun we've scheduled another card party for Sunday, January 20, 3–7pm. For more information: DelRayArtisans.org/event/card-making-party-2

Girl Scouts Make Books, Surrounded by Art

Alexandria Girl Scout Troop 1877 recently spent a morning creating handmade books in a book making class at Del Ray Artisans with Programs Director Stacy Rausch. This is a new initiative between this troop and Del Ray Artisans. The troop also attended a jewelry making class led by DRA member Kate Gibney; we hope to continue these classes into 2019.

Girl Scouts show off their handmade books

If you have ideas for a children's class or an interest in teaching a short session (90 minutes to two hours) with 10–13 Girl Scouts ages 8–9, please contact Stacy Rausch at Programs@DelRayArtisans.org. We would love to expand our programs to include more children throughout the year, in addition to the summer kids' art camp.

New Officers

Congratulations to our new officers and directors, voted in at the October 25 membership meeting.

Del Ray Artisans 2019 Exhibit Schedule

Calls for Entry [as they become available] are at www.DelRayArtisans.org/cfe

January: Faces (All Artists) Call for Entry Available - Entry Deadline: December 16, 2018 by Midnight
12/30 & 12/31 receiving, 01/04 opening, 01/27 closing

Curators: Rita Schooley & Kathy Turner

Portraits show the life a person has lived, the joy a person emanates, the wisdom gained through years of living, and focuses on the soul of the person. This exhibit is for the fresh face of a two-year old toddler or the lived-in face of an octogenarian, and all living in between. Full-length portraits are encouraged, but this exhibit centers on faces, however the artist portrays them, whether realistic, impressionistic, surreal, or abstract. Bodies in motion, thoughtful faces, eyes as the mirror of the soul are all part of the portrait.

February: New Beginnings (All Artists)

01/27 & 01/28 receiving, 02/01 opening, 02/24 closing

Curator: Tracy Wilkerson

A recycled materials show, where the artwork submitted is asked to be at least 50% recycled materials

March: For the Artist (Members Only)

02/24 & 02/25 receiving, 03/01 opening, 03/31 closing

Curators: Jeff Lodge & Jenny Nicholson

This show features works that the artist has always wanted to create. Create that piece that has been bugging you, calling to you, and been on your New Year's resolution list several years running. Although this can be considered an open show, we challenge participants to reach into that wish list and create that special piece they've dreamed about doing. Two and three-dimensional works and photography will be accepted.

April: (No) Comfort Zone (Members & Students Only)

03/31 & 04/01 receiving, 04/05 opening, 04/28 closing

Curators: Joe Franklin & Kelly Sincock

In your comfort zone things feel familiar and you are at ease and in control of your environment. You experience low levels of anxiety and stress. This is where a steady level of performance is possible. Uncertainty, scarcity and vulnerability are minimized you have access to enough love, food, talent, time, admiration. You feel like you have some control. Leave your comfort zone for the fun and excitement of the new! Savor the unknown, the unfamiliar and the uncertain. Travel; meet the people who are not you. At first, fear and excitement drive you. If you stay, eventually it all seems normal. Creativity wanes, spontaneous solutions go back to sleep and you are normal again. Go to the edge and a new zone.

May: Sacred Feminine (All Artists)

04/28 & 04/29 receiving, 05/03 opening, 06/02 closing

Curators: Lynn Fernandez & Tamara Wilkerson

For the last several thousand years the dominant religious belief systems of our world have been patriarchal. This has sanctioned societal ethics that elevate "God the Father" over "Mother Earth" and as a result, this power dichotomy elevates the wants and desires of men over women. The sacred feminine has been replaced with the easily exploited stereotypes of virgin or whore. For hundreds of years women with knowledge of childbirth, medicine, science, or even just the ability to read were burned at the stake as witches to repress the sacred feminine. Despite all of its progress, our modern world still skews away from honoring the sacred feminine. We promote unhealthy body standards to keep women enslaved to an unobtainable ideal. We use the bodies of women to sell products from fast food to luxury cars while simultaneously shunning women for a flash of skin while breastfeeding in public. We discard women as disposable or less believable based on their sexual history. The world constantly debates a women's right to have fundamental human rights like voting, driving, and basic autonomy over their own bodies. This multi-media show seeks to define the essence of the female energy in all its forms. What does the Divine feminine look like to you? How do you picture the goddess in her many permutations from Isis, Ishtar, and Gaia, to Kali, Kuan Yin, and the Virgin Mary. What does it mean to be female? What is your experience positioned firmly at the juxtaposition of what society constantly tells you to be and the reality of what you are? What does the sacred feminine mean to you as a person who identifies as female or not?

Del Ray Artisans 2019 Exhibit Schedule

Calls for Entry [as they become available] are at www.DelRayArtisans.org/cfe

June: Art in Meditation – Chakras (All Artists)

06/02 & 06/03 receiving, 06/07 opening, 06/30 closing

Curators: Joyce A Frank & Kitty Russell

What do the Chakras or just one individual Chakra mean to you?

Chakras are light, energy, color, feeling. Chakras are the 7 energy centers of the body. Each of the 7 is represented by an element of nature, color, positive and negative sides. Many yoga and mediation practices are based around these energy centers.

1. Root chakra — base of the spine — red
2. Sacral chakra — just below the navel — orange
3. Solar Plexus chakra — stomach area — yellow
4. Heart chakra — center of the chest — green
5. Throat chakra — base of the throat — blue
6. Third Eye chakra — forehead, just above area between the eyes — indigo
7. Crown chakra — top of the head — violet

This show will accept up to 7 entries if each of the chakras is represented in 7 separate works of art, space permitting. Otherwise the usual maximum limit of 3 works of art per entrant applies.

August: In with the new (New to DRA 2018 & 2019 Members Only)

07/28 & 07/29 receiving, 08/02 opening, 09/01 closing

Curators: Brittany Gabel & Kurt Peterson

DRA shows love to new members. This exhibit will serve to welcome new DRA members who have joined in 2018 and 2019, up until the entry deadline for this show. New members are invited to enter this special exhibit for free. This will be an open theme show, so new members will have maximum ability to showcase their art. Welcome to DRA!

September: High Note (All Artists)

09/01 & 09/02 receiving, 09/06 opening, 09/29 closing

Curators: Nicole Mahoney & Dawn Wyse Hurto

High Note explores the connection between music and the mind. Music has a profound influence on us, shaping the way we feel and think. We often associate music with major life events. A familiar melody can unleash powerful memories, transporting us in space and time. What does your mind “see” when you hear your wedding song or a selection off the playlist from your first marathon? This show explores the connections between music and the mind. Whether symphonies make your spirit soar, or doo-wops do it for you, artists are encouraged to submit works that capture the high notes from the soundtrack of their lives.

October: The 5th Dimension (All Artists)

09/29 & 09/30 receiving, 10/04 opening, 10/27 closing

Curator: Gordon Thomas

The eerie drama of The Twilight Zone has had a pervasive influence on modern art and pop culture. Surreal, supernatural, fantastic, and whimsical events occurred each week with an uncanny twist. I want to bring this timeless television show to life through art and photography.

November: $100 & Under - [3rd edition] (Members Only)

10/27, 10/28 receiving, 11/01 opening, 12/01 closing

Curators: Stephen Lally & Kathy Turner

The popular $100 & Under exhibit makes its biannual return, featuring art priced at $100 or less. This is a great chance for people to directly support the arts in your community at pocketbook-friendly prices. The art will be sold on an art-to-go basis, with buyers taking art home when purchased. Additional artworks will be added as others are sold. This will be a rapidly evolving exhibit, as sold artwork is replaced each week with new work. Expect to find lots of great art at prices most art-lovers can afford. Artists may enter up to 5 pieces, with only the first 3 to be displayed initially. Artists will be asked to reserve and self store the other 2 pieces as replacements if any of their first 3 pieces sell.
