After Edward Hopper: Themes of Solitude and Isolation Runs February 5-27, 2021

"COVID Nighthawks Reimagined"
by Kelly MacConomy

Life in the time of COVID-19 this past year has created an inorganic state of a nearly lost humanity. The pervasive experiences of solitude, isolation, loneliness, longing, and reverie are a common thread in the paintings of Edward Hopper. Hopper's iconic emblem of Post-Depression-era America and a world at war, "Nighthawks," recalls not only the dire times of economic uncertainty but a world lost. Artists are invited to enter their own existential explorations and expressions in response to COVID-19.

Reserve a ticket now for a half-hour viewing during the extended hours on opening day: Friday, February 5 between 12-8pm. For tickets: after-hopper.eventbrite.com. Opening day tickets are not required, but ticket holders have priority entry. The gallery capacity is limited to 10 people at any one time in order to facilitate social distancing. Gallery hours: Thursday & Friday 12-6pm, Saturday 12-4pm. For more information, contact curator Kelly MacConomy (kmacconomy@gmail.com) or Director of Curating Kelly Postula (Curating@DelRayArtisans.org).

Del Ray Artisans' Valentine's Day Promotion

Help Del Ray Artisans grow! From February 14 through the end of March, everyone who refers a new member and everyone who joins as a new member will receive a coupon good for one free entry to one show in 2021. Go to DelRayArtisans.org/membership/ for membership information. Tell your recruit to include your name in the message box of the online form or the referral line on the hard copy form.

Give Me Shelter Runs March 5-27, 2021 Digital entry deadline: midnight Sun, February 14

"Beach Shelter"
by Pamela Day

During the pandemic most of us have become more aware of how we function and feel about our home spaces. The March show, Give Me Shelter, explores these feelings and well as the struggles facing those threatened with homelessness. We are no strangers to the sight of people on corners with cardboard signs asking for help; nor have the encampments under overpasses and bridges gone unnoticed. For this exhibit explore what shelter means to you both as a noun and a verb. The digital entry deadline is Sunday, February 14 for both the (in theme) exhibit and (no theme) marketplace. Entry details at DelRayArtisans.org/2021/01/give-me-shelter-cfe/.

Curators Theresa Kulstad and Pam Day are hosting a drive to fill some specific needs of our neighbors. In March please drop off donations at the gallery of new full-size toiletries, new twin-size air mattresses, Target gift cards, and monetary donations to benefit Carpenter's Shelter. If you for someone you know is facing homelessness, local support resources are listed on the exhibit page:

Meet DRA's Board and Staff

Steena Fullmer (pictured above) is a fused glass artist. She has worked with glass and all its disciplines for 20 years. She started as Assistant Office Manager in October and staffs the gallery on Thursdays and Fridays. Steena has also spent 10 years studying circus arts, specializing in static trapeze and has performed in three trapeze shows.

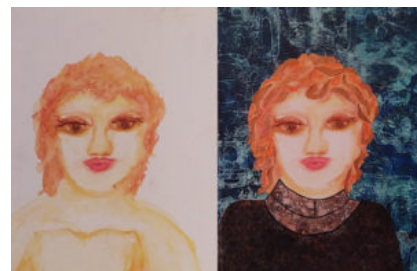

Anna Sherlock (pictured above) has been the Office Manager at Del Ray Artisans since November 2017, supporting the Board and keeping everything running day-to-day. During the pandemic, Anna also staffs the gallery on Saturdays, so stop in and say hello! Outside of their work at DRA, Anna is a volunteer naturalist and "insect ambassador," a dabbler in a variety of artistic media, an Irish language student, and an enjoyer of speculative fiction.

Unfinished/Finished runs April 2 – May 1, 2021 Sign Up for Random Pairing by February 3 Call for Entry Deadline: Sunday, March 14

As artists, most of us have unfinished pieces hidden in our workspaces. This exhibit challenges us to share those pieces with other artists and see how the "start" inspires a "finish" by someone else. Artists may self-pair with someone they know -OR- sign up (by February 3) to be randomly paired.

Unfinished/Finished is open to all area artists and area high school students. High school students are invited to participate for free (no entry fee). The digital entry deadline is Sunday, March 14 for both the (in theme) exhibit and (no theme) marketplace. Entry details at DelRayArtisans.org/cfe.

Call for Entry Form Change

To better assist DRA volunteers who are posting exhibits online, a tweak has been made to the entry requirements. Formerly artists were asked to name their image files: YourLastName-FirstName-Entry1, YourLastName-FirstName-Entry2, etc. The new process is for artists to name their image files: YourLastName-FirstName-ArtworkTitle. All other image file requirements remain the same (accepted file types: jpg, jpeg, pdf, png, and gif; up to 5MB in file size). The photos you submit with your entry form may be used online to advertise your artwork and the exhibit as a whole.

Reminder that these changes took effect last summer due to the pandemic:

- Volunteer hours are not required. Gallery hosting is only done by ALX Promise certified staff and members.
- Work previously shown at Del Ray Artisans gallery may be (or may not be) eligible to be entered. The curators are given the authority to decide this requirement for their exhibit. Read each Call for Entry carefully.
- Every exhibit will have an associated "Art-to-Go" marketplace opportunity. The curators decide if the marketplace follows (or does not follow) the theme of the exhibit, as well as the maximum number of entries.
- Artists must enter the main exhibit in order to also enter the marketplace. Marketplace acceptance is no longer contingent on exhibit acceptance (only on exhibit submission).
- Exhibit and marketplace entries are due online on the same date, but there are different entry forms. The marketplace entry form is linked off of the exhibit entry form.
- Artwork drop off and pick up is done by appointment only. Curators will email the artists with accepted work the sign up sheets for appointments.
- Face masks are required and please maintain 6' of personal space when inside the gallery.
- There are no receptions. No more than 10 people are allowed in the gallery at any one time.
- Half-hour viewing appointments are available during the extended hours (12-8pm) on the Opening Day of each exhibit.

Special thanks to the City of Alexandria for providing the ALX Promise program. Del Ray Artisans is committed to the health and safety of our members and visitors. We are proud to provide a creative outlet for artists and the community during this unusual time.

Member Meeting on February 21

Our next virtual member meeting will take place on Sunday, February 21 at 4pm. The pandemic is preventing us from having our art supplies swap. Lesley Harris from Upcycle Creative Reuse Center will tell us about their work upcycling art supplies and other items in creative ways. Please register for the meeting in advance at DelRayArtisans.org/event/first-meeting-2021.

You must register to receive the Zoom meeting connection information. Everyone who registers and attends the meeting will also be entered in a drawing for DRA merchandise.

Although the art supplies swap is out for now, we have a way for you to sell or give away art supplies and art-related items to other members called Classifieds for Del Ray Artisans Members. We'll include the list in the newsletter (this publication!) email to members on the first of the month. Exchange of items will be arranged by the people involved.

Please email a short description of the item(s) available, specifying whether donation or sale (with price), and your contact info that will be included with the item, to Rita Cohen at blueweave1@yahoo.com by the 25th of the month.

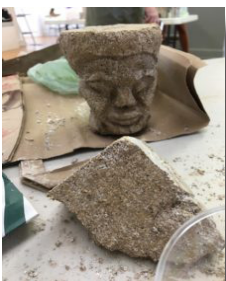

Upcoming Workshops

In person, please wear a mask and give fellow participants six feet of personal space. Register in advance. Register for workshops at DelRayArtisans.org/workshops

Playing with Resin Tuesday, February 16, 6-9pm

Tracy Wilkerson shows you the ins and outs of mixing resin and using it in your artwork as an adhesive, a covering, or the main medium. There's lots of creative time during this 3-hour workshop...no need to rush, which is one of the first lessons in using resin! Register by February 13. $40 member/$50 non-member; $10 supply fee.

ONLINE: Sculpting With Plaster and Vermiculite

Saturday, February 20, 9am-12 noon
Jonathan Ottke teaches basic sculpting technique, carving in plaster and vermiculite. You will use knives, forks, rasps, and saws to create your sculpture, then sand and finish your work. Register by February 10 (pick up supply kits at the gallery between February 12-19). $30 member/$40 non-member, $10 supply fee.

2021 Calendars on Sale

There are a few 2021 calendars left, and they just went on sale for $9 each. Don't miss this special offer! Thank you to Doug Fuller for the 2021 calendar design; to the 51 members who have featured work; and to the sponsors: Ellen Patrick / Homes of Alexandria, Cooley LLP, McD Mateos McDonalds, and Cosmopolitan Boat Club.

Free Fun Activities

Urban Sketchbooking Sunday, February 21, 1-3pm

Bring your supplies and join us outside to produce still life, figure, or architecture subjects in your sketchbook. This is a drop-in program outside at St. Elmo's Coffee Pub (2300 Mount Vernon Avenue, Alexandria, VA). Please wear a face mask and maintain six feet of personal space. Details at DelRayArtisans.org/sketchbooking.

Card Swap: We're All In This Together

This is a handcrafted, artful card swap between artists. A swap group is formed each time four artists apply, then swapping begins immediately for that group. Open to all artists with a U.S. domestic mailing address or an equivalent military address that accepts a standard first-class stamp. Sign up at DelRayArtisans.org/card-swap-cfe.

ONLINE: The Creative Spark Book Club Saturday, March 20 from 10:30am-12pm

Current Book: "What Would Frida Do?: A Guide to Living Boldly" by Arianna Davis. (RSVP by March 17)
