The Art of Nature runs May 7-29

"Magnolia Blossom at Dusk"
by Cynthia Schoeppel

For centuries, nature has been an influential factor in the creation of artwork by artists. As more discussion has centered around environmental concerns, The Art of Nature is an art exhibit that reminds us of the gift Mother Earth has given us, the beauty of nature. Artists in this exhibition share their interpretations of the natural world around us, whether it be on the animals who make their homes in nature, water that brings life to riverbeds or beaches and the vegetation, plants and trees that add color to our world.

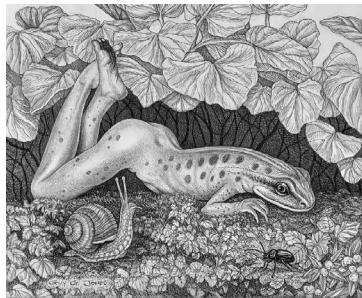

Reserve a ticket at the-art-of-nature.eventbrite.com for a half-hour viewing during extended hours on opening day: Friday, May 7 between 12-8pm. Opening day tickets are not required, but ticket holders have priority entry. The gallery capacity is limited to 10 people at any one time in order to facilitate social distancing. Details at DelRayArtisans.org/event/the-art-of-nature.

Regular gallery hours are Thursdays and Fridays 12-6pm, and Saturdays 12-4pm. For more information, contact the curator Cynthia Schoeppel at schoeppc@hotmail.com.

The Naked and the Newt: Humans and Herpetons Runs June 4-26 Call for Entry Deadline: Monday, May 10

What is it like to be in a body? Can you sing the texture of a frog's skin? Explore the experience of embodied humanity, your engagement with reptiles and amphibians, or even the intersection of the two! This exhibition investigates conceptions of anatomy, texture, and conservation with our partners, the Virginia Herpetological Society.

Give Me Shelter Donation Drive Update

Thank you to all of our artists and supporters who contributed to the success of the Give Me Shelter show and the donation drive for Alexandria's Carpenter's Shelter. Curators Pam Day and Theresa Kulstad were pleased at the response of our theme. In addition to an interesting, successful exhibit, we raised $205 and took in a load of in-kind donations providing much needed goods to the Carpenter's Shelter, Alexandria's largest shelter supporting entire families. They were so happy and grateful to receive these generous donations.

May Membership Meeting

The online member meeting and benefit program is on Thursday, May 20 at 7pm. Nina Tisara and her son, Steven Halperson, will tell us about their work creating portraits for Living Legends of Alexandria, an organization that identifies, honors and chronicles the lives of individuals who have contributed to the community.

After 30+ years as a professional photographer, Nina Tisara's current media is mosaics. Nina founded Living Legends of Alexandria and considers it her most important legacy, besides, of course, her children.

Steven Halperson manages and is the primary photographer for Tisara Photography in Old Town Alexandria. His portraits of Alexandria's current Living Legends are on permanent display in the Market Square Lobby of Alexandria City Hall. Steven continues to develop the creative aspects of his work and experiments with various forms of expression, copper etching and circuit boards, as well as photography.

Unfinished/Finished: Acknowledgements

Many thanks to the artists and volunteers who made the Unfinished/Finished show such a fun one! Forty-four artists either started or finished a piece for the show, including 14 brave souls who agreed to be randomly paired with another artist (often times a complete stranger)! Viewers said they appreciated the different approaches artists took, with some adding simple brushstrokes or touches to a piece and others completely reimagining the artwork.

The curator, Eileen M. O'Brien, would like to send special thanks to Liz Martinez and Gordon Frank for receiving help; Maria Frescas, Maria Hart, and Thom Lowther who helped hang the show; and Margaret Wohler and Nancy Ramsey for hosting excellent workshops during the show. An additional feature of the show was the Speed Painting fundraiser, and kudos go to Kitty Russell, Audrey Dervarics and Linda Mierke for setting up/managing the Speed Painting event and also for joining in with the other painters that day, who included Betsy Jones, Max Jones, Theresa Kulstad, Erica Hughes and Cristin Guinan-Wiley. Proceeds from the sale of artwork from that event support Del Ray Artisans and community outreach efforts.
