A Space Between Art Exhibit August 5-27, 2022

"Shadows"
by Kelly Postula

The A Space Between art exhibit at Del Ray Artisans gallery focuses on shadows, negative space, and often overlooked components of a scene. After two years separated by literally six feet—and many centuries of burying loved ones six feet under—the concept of space gave artists a chance to explore themes of isolation beyond the physical separations of our shared experience.

Join us on opening day, Friday, August 5 between 12-9pm for the widest selection of artwork. The artworks feature the shadows cast on subjects and the negative spaces revealing previously unseen images to help us visualize empathy and compassion for seeing the same thing differently.

Fitting beautifully into the space during the exhibit are several workshops, including:

- "A Space to Clean" Soap-making Workshop on Saturday, August 6 from 10am-1pm;
- Everyday Abstracts a la El Anatsui Workshop on Saturday, August 13 from 6-8pm;
- Quilt Patch Mosaic Workshop on Tuesday, August 16 from 6:30-8:30pm;
- Playing with Resin Workshop on Sunday, August 21 from 6-9pm; and
- Victorian Inspired Earrings Workshop on Saturday, August 27 from 10am-12pm.

Register in advance for workshops at DelRayArtisans.org/workshops.

The exhibit runs August 5-27, 2022. Gallery hours are First Thursday (Apr-Sept) 12-9pm, Thursday 12-6pm, Friday 12-9pm, Saturday 12-6pm, and Sunday 12-6pm (closed on Sunday, August 28, 2022). Face masks are recommended inside the gallery. The gallery is free, open to the public, and accessible.

For more information, contact the curator Brittany Baron (calypso137@gmail.com).

Blast from the Past

During our 30th Anniversary year, we're highlighting a few fond memories from members. Also check out our online photo archives: bit.ly/dra-flickr.

In 1999 the Board decided to have an Offbeat Auction (a huge fundraiser where artists decorated donated furniture). The auction was scheduled for December 4th at the Lyceum. To prepare the gallery was closed from July to November and became a studio for artists to work on the donated furniture. To add to the auction atmosphere, I created Bid Paddles (photo) for attendees to use. The auction was a lot of work, but was a big success and one of my favorite memories. —Liz Martinez, member since 1997

Members: Submit your best work to the 10th annual Del Ray Artisans' wall calendar! All entries are to be received digitally, and no physical pieces of art will be collected. There is no entry fee, no theme, and work previously shown at Del Ray Artisans is acceptable. This calendar is a fundraiser to benefit Del Ray Artisans.

Return to Eating, Drinking, and Merriment (October 7-29)

Ceramic entries due Sunday, September 4

Non-ceramic entries due Sunday, September 11

This exhibit is a hybrid show that combines a national ceramic show focused on drinking vessels with a regional non-ceramic two- and three-dimensional show that echoes these themes. Artwork should be inspired by food, real or metaphorical, that nourishes the viewer. Artists may also highlight the rituals and places that celebrate the social gathering around sustenance. The juror, Jeremy Wallace, will be selecting cash artists awards.
