Assembly: Together We Grow Art Exhibit March 6 - 28

Exhibit Reception: Friday, March 6, 7-9pm

From council circles of Indigenous nations to agoras of ancient Greece, and from impromptu storm shelters to reliable weekly spiritual gatherings and intimate family dinners, gathering has shaped how we live and how we imagine better ways of living together. It is one of the essential tools we have for building trust, sharing knowledge, and making meaning across generations.

The Assembly: Together We Grow art exhibit at Del Ray Artisans delves into the fundamental human act of gathering and how it helps us grow, care for one another, and cultivate belonging. This member artist showcase explores gathering not just as a moment in time, but as a powerful mechanism through which we sustain and reimagine the world together.

Join us for the opening reception on Friday, March 6 between 7-9pm to meet curator Haddy Kreie and the artists.

Save the date for Del Ray Artisans' open studio and guided poster workshop for all ages on Saturday, March 28, 6-9pm to make posters together in the spirit of the Assembly exhibit.

In Memory of Donna Gallo and Rusty Lynn

DRA lost two wonderful long-time members in February: Donna Gallo and Rusty Lynn. Both artists touched the hearts of everyone who knew them. Donna was a talented mixed media collage artist who often volunteered for gallery hosting and Adopt-a-Park clean up. Rusty was a talented sculptor and mixed media artist who led DRA's Creative Book Club for two years and helped hang countless exhibits. They are already sorely missed.

Please gather for a Card Making evening at the gallery in memory of Donna Gallo and Rusty Lynn on Saturday, April 4 from 6-9pm. Donna's husband Bill donated her art supplies to DRA, and we'll all get to use them for card making together. Come enjoy the camaraderie and share cherished memories of Donna and Rusty to celebrate their lives.

Remembering Donna Lee Gallo (1957-2026)

Long-time Del Ray Artisans member Donna Lee Gallo died peacefully at her home in the early morning of February 11 after a long illness. She was a talented and prolific artist and dear friend to many in our community. Donna specialized in mixed media, frequently incorporating found objects such as nails, fabric, and feathers into her pieces to give them new life. Her work often reflected things she loved—books, music, animals and nature. Donna was a featured artist in the 2024 "Pieces, Parts and Possibilities" exhibit at 868 Estate Vineyards in Purcellville, VA, and her work was regularly displayed in the DRA gallery.

Donna and I bonded over our shared origins. Her story began in the Bronx, NY, home to her beloved Yankees and source of many fond memories. She was part of a big family and spoke lovingly of her siblings, family gatherings, and especially her father, who nurtured her creativity and appreciation of literature and music from a young age. Music was central to Donna's life. She was an avid concert goer, and while she claimed she could not carry a tune, she could recite by memory the lyrics of every song from her favorite artists.

Donna was fiercely proud of her children Steven and Dana. She was a devoted partner and friend to her husband Bill. Over the years they traveled to Egypt, Italy and all of the states needed for Donna to reach the goal of a walk in all 50. She was also the number one fan and adoring guardian of Pepper, their rescue dog and loyal companion. Donna will be missed. There will be a Celebration of Life for Donna on March 14 from 2-4pm at her and Bill's home in Alexandria, VA. —Nicole Mahoney, friend

Remembering Rusty Lynn (1943-2026)

It is with great sadness that I announce the passing of Rusty Lynn. He passed away on Sunday, February 22. It was his 83rd birthday. Rusty was a beloved, long-time Del Ray Artisans member and prolific artist in a variety of mediums. He helped hang the artworks or post the artwork wall tags for nearly every exhibit at Del Ray Artisans these past few years. He also was the facilitator of DRA's Creative Book Club from 2022-2024.

Rusty was a sweet, kind, and soft-spoken man who was ready to lend a hand where needed. I had such lovely conversations with him. His presence will be sorely missed as he was such a vital member of our community. His husband, Ed, will keep us posted on any service details. Please contact me at assistant@delrayartisans.org for more information when available.

—Liz Martinez, friend
